Program Title: Therapeutic Healing Color Strategies and their Implementation in the Healthcare Environment

HSW: Yes

Learn how the use of natural elements, and color palettes that reflect nature, can help create a healing atmosphere for patients and positive working environment for staff.

Description:

This presentation provides information on the rapidly growing body of credible research which strongly links patient health and overall quality of care to the way healthcare facilities are designed—including both architectural and interior design elements. Throughout the course attendees will gain an understanding for how designs that reflect nature and work to “bring nature indoors” play a vital role in helping to create a healing atmosphere for patients and positive working environment for staff.

Learning Objectives:

At completion of this program, the participants will have a clear understanding of the following:

- Color and the impact that it can have upon individuals.
- The added healing benefits of using color in healthcare spaces.
- Specific applications in healthcare where color can be effectively used.
- Specific implementation details to use color for helping to create better recuperative environments in healthcare facilities.

How Taught:

The CES facilitator utilizes a PowerPoint presentation to deliver the information. The lecture is followed by a question-and-answer session.

A/V Needed:

Power, projector, and screen or plasma screen. The facilitator will supply the laptop and, if necessary, the projector.

Target Audience:

Architects, specifiers, interior designers, owners and other design professionals in the commercial market. There is no ideal audience size, groups can vary from 10 to 100. This program meets every experience level and can go more into detail if needed.

Facilitator Qualifications:

All DuPont Surfaces CES facilitators have been trained on CES guidelines and presentation skills. These facilitators can include DuPont Surfaces personnel or DuPont Surfaces Distributor sales professionals.

Costs:

There is no cost to bring this program into your firm or chapter meeting.
